

Coming up next...

Sunday 11 September 2016 *7.30pm

The Young Musician Showcase

Wagner Overture: Die Meistersinger
Grieg Piano concerto in A minor
Elgar Symphony No 2

Michael Lloyd conductor
Adelaide Yue piano

Winner Chandos Young Musician Competition 2015

Adelaide Yue was an instant hit with the judges and the audience at the 2015 Chandos Young Musician Competition and cruised to the winning spot with serene assurance. Expect a sparkling pianistic performance right from the very opening bars, set alight by the thunderous roll of the timpani.

Chandos continues its journey through the symphonies of Elgar with his second. At its heart, a core of tragic lyricism, yet flanked by movements of unquenchable energy. We open with Die Meistersinger: it's midsummer's eve, Nuremberg, 16th century. Can Walter learn the mastersinger's art in time to win the fair lady's hand?

The Friends' 25th Anniversary Concert

Bax Tintagel
Elgar Elegy for Strings op 58
Lalo Cello Concerto
Prokofiev Romeo and Juliet highlights

Michael Lloyd conductor
David Cohen cello

This is the special programme chosen by our Friends of the orchestra for their 25th anniversary. The call for programme items created a great deal of interest, and so we are pleased to present the four winning entries selected by music director, Michael Lloyd.

We are delighted to say that the Lalo will be performed by our friend David Cohen, Belgian cellist extraordinaire, who is always so popular with Malvern audiences. Three more beautiful and evocative pieces by Bax, Elgar and Prokofiev, complete the evening, which will be marked by a special presentation.
